

HEALTH PROMOTION NURSE

The responsibilities for the Health Promotion Nurse include:

- Discuss medical concerns with service users while at locations other than the clinic
- Provide information on appropriate services the service user should access
- Raise awareness amongst service users on the importance of maintaining their health.
- Educate service users on maintaining good physical or mental health until they access mainstream services.
- Advocate on behalf of service users to fellow medical professionals in the NHS.
- Work as a support worker within the clinic on non-health promotion days

Qualifications and qualities required to volunteer as a Health Promotion Nurse include:

- Full registration with the Nursing Medical Council to practice nursing in the UK
- Completed two years post nursing training.
- Medical Indemnity Insurance Cover which includes working in Medecins du Monde's clinic
- Confident working with interpreting services
- Non-judgmental behaviour or attitude towards our service users and confidence in working with service users from diverse backgrounds.
- Fluency in English
- Confident telephone manner