SELECTED PHOTOS

Along with the winning entries, other photos will be selected from all those submitted to form part of a travelling national and international exhibition. Photographers will be contacted if their works have been chosen.

7. HOW WINNERS WILL BE CHOSEN

The judging panel for the award can be viewed on the awards website. The panel will convene within thirty days after the closing date, and the selection procedure will be as follows: Winner and runner-up

The panel will choose the two best works from all those submitted, shortlisting them for the first prize (project grant). Once selected, MÉDICOS DEL MUNDO will require of the finalists a further sample of up to 12 photos dealing with one or two subjects. Once this additional material has been received, the panel will proceed to select the overall winner.

The remaining finalist will be named runner-up.

Once the panel has reached its decision, MÉDICOS DEL MUNDO will inform the winners.

Special prize.

The panel will also choose the photo or photo series winning the special prize.

Once the panel has reached its decision, winners will again be notified.

The panel's decision will be reached by simple majority and the judges' decision is final. Should the entries submitted not be of a sufficient standard, prizes may be declared null.

8. AWARDS CEREMONY

The awards will be presented publicly in January 2010, time and place to be advised.

9. GENERAL RULES

The winners and photographers whose works have been selected, having accepted the terms of the competition, authorise MÉDICOS DEL MUNDO to reproduce their photos via whatever means and channels it sees fit, so as to promote the award as well as MÉDICOS DEL MUNDO projects and campaigns, both nationally and internationally. The images will always include the name of their author.

In no circumstances will the photos be returned to participants.

Participants will observe all legal requirements prevailing in matters of intellectual property and recognise the right of MÉDICOS DEL MUNDO to circulate the photos so as to promote MÉDICOS DEL MUNDO projects and campaigns.
